

(英語)

子どもに声をかけてあげてください

Talk to the children around you

Children who have been in a natural disaster often feel anxious or nervous because of the terrifying experience.

Please tell these children that they are safe now and are protected by everyone in the shelter. Also, try to make the children feel safe and secure by taking care of them. Keep telling the children that they are safe now and everything is Ok; it will give them some peace of mind.