

2 Birth notification (birth registration) and acquisition of nationality

2-4 Choice of nationality

When a child has obtained two nationalities including Japanese, his/her parents submit a notification of “nationality reservation” at the time they submit the birth notification in Japan. In Japan a person is not permitted to maintain two nationalities (dual nationality) and is required to choose either of them before reaching the age of 22.