6-2 Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students (EJU)

The Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students (EJU) is used to evaluate whether international students who wish to study universities or other such higher educational institutions in Japan possess the Japanese language skills and the basic academic abilities needed to study at those institutions.

Japan Student Services Organization (JASSO) official website will help you find out which Japanese universities consider EJU scores in their admission process for international students. For details, contact JASSO.

Subjects	Date of Exam	Language options	Inquiries
Japanese as a foreign language, science (physics, chemistry, and biology), Japan and the World (liberal arts) and mathematics. Examinees may select the subjects depending on the university they wish to enter and the course of study they wish to pursue.	Twice a year in June and November.	The EJU is available in Japanese or English, except for the Japanese as a Foreign Language test, which is given in Japanese only; applicants need to indicate their preference in the application based on the requirements of the university they wish to enter and the course of study they wish to pursue.
