

1 Driver's license

(3) Required documents for switching to Japanese driver's license

Required document	Where to submit	Fee
1. Application form for driver's license (available at test sites) 2. A portrait photo (3cm long x 2.4cm wide, taken within the last six months) 3. A certificate containing the facts registered on your foreign registration card and a certificate of your foreign registration 4. Your driver's license issued in your native country (or a country other than Japan) (if the license does not bear the date of delivery, material evidencing such date) 5. Official Japanese translation of your driver's license (it must be issued by any of a foreign administrative body, a consular body or JAF) 6. Your passport (it must bear your emigration/ immigration record)	Driver's license center located in the area of your residence	About 5,000 yen for application, delivery and other services. Fees vary for types of license you apply for. For details, please enquire at the driver's license center of your area.