

(英語語)

大学入試センター試験の検定料が免除されます

Waiver of examination fee for the National Center Test for University Admissions

The examination fee for the National Center Test for University Admissions in January 2012 and other such fees will be waived for students taking this test who have been affected by the Great East Japan Earthquake. The test fee waiver application form will be sent along with the examination admission card and other relevant documents in December 2011. Please check that this waiver form is included with the other documents.

■Items for waiver

Examination fee: up to 2 subjects 12,000 yen; 3 or more subjects 18,000 yen

Administrative fee for results notification: 800 yen (only for those students who wish to have the results notification posted to them)

■Persons eligible for waiver

Includes applicants from the areas affected by the Great East Japan Earthquake that are under the Disaster Relief Act, and those students whose residences are in the areas designated as evacuation zones or the planned evacuation zones due to the Fukushima No.1 Reactor accident.

■Reference

National Center for University Entrance Examinations

Report No.4, September 28, 2011