

(英語)

震災で大きな被害を受けた一人親家庭に児童扶養手当が全額支給されます

Full amount of childcare allowance to be paid to single-parent households that have incurred major damage from the earthquake

The full amount of the childcare allowance will be paid to single-parent households that have incurred damage by the Great East Japan Earthquake to their house and assets which has lowered their monetary value by more than half, and who were not eligible or only partly eligible to receive the childcare allowance due to income restrictions. Please inquire with your local department for child welfare for details on the administrative procedures and other information for receiving the allowance.

※As of August 2010, the childcare allowance is also applicable for single parent households consisting of the father and child/children.

■Amount paid

41,550 yen (for payment of full amount)

■Payment period

Until July 2012

Report No.7, September 28, 2011