Mobile Center for Children opened in Rikuzen Takata City

The authorized NPO Children without Borders is running a Mobile Center for Children out of a renovated route bus to provide children from disaster-stricken areas with a quiet place where they can study and have private time to think and reflect. The Center opened on December 1, 2011 and at present will be operational in Rikuzen Takata City.

Please refer to the website below for further details on ongoing events and information for the Center.
